

Andrea Mircheska is a double bassist and active performer in the contemporary jazz and free improvisation scene in Macedonia and beyond. With many years of experience on stage, she is recognizable for her broad musical expression and collaboration with numerous bands and artists such as Taxi Consilium, Pijan Slavej, Zarina Prvasevda, Jordan Kostov, Dina Jashari, Alembic and others.

She has performed at significant festivals and stages across Macedonia, the Balkans and Europe, including Skopje Jazz Festival, OFFest, WOMEX, Balkan Trafik, Druga Godba, as well as on club and concert stages in Belgrade, Zagreb, Budapest, Ljubljana, Manchester and Brussels.

She is the winner of the "Golden Oryx" award for best young jazz musician (2019) and has participated in several educational programs, such as Jazz Clinic Velenje and Ponta Lopud Jazz Festival. She is part of several releases published by PMG Jazz, SJF Records and King Gong International, where she is listed as a co-author or performer.

Mircheska actively participates in the development of the independent jazz scene, contributing through creative collaborations, interdisciplinary projects and concert series, and continues to develop as one of the most prominent young musicians of her generation.
